

Purchase a Coffee Table Book Depicting 100 Years of Pitt Band!

On October 14, 1911, eight men marched onto Forbes Field carrying borrowed musical instruments. Since its beginning, the Band has grown and established itself as one of the premiere bands of the country. As the book's pages unfold, discover the evolution and secrets of the Pitt Band. Each director's era will be chronicled with photographs depicting major events. Read how our traditions molded us into the Band we are today. All groups and organizations associated with the Blue and Gold Band will be highlighted. A roster containing every member of the Pitt Band since its inception will be included. A special chapter will highlight the festivities of the Centennial season.

The completed publication will be 10" x 10".
